

"How to spread a rumor?"

Aditya Karnik
GM India Science Lab, Bangalore

Recent rise of social networks has brought to the fore interesting and challenging questions pertaining to spread of information in a population. Considering various "forms" of information- a simple message, a rumor, a joke, a term- we take a look into different models of diffusion and provide some insights into controlling them.