

Nuclear forces and light nuclei: recent developments

E. Epelbaum

I will discuss some recent developments in application of chiral effective field theory to few-nucleon systems. Special emphasis will be put on the inclusion of the delta isobar degrees of freedom, pion production in NN collisions and nuclear lattice simulations.