

Microscopic Optical Model Potential for Proton – Nucleus Interaction

S. Kailas

Bhabha Atomic Research Centre, Mumbai 400 085

M. Hemalatha

UM-DAE Centre for Excellence in Basic Sciences, Mumbai 400 098

Y. K. Gambhir

Indian Institute of Technology (B), Mumbai 400 076

W. Haider

Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh 202 002

Starting from the microscopic optical potential, constructed using the effective N-N interaction and the RMF densities, a large body of proton- nucleus scattering and reaction data have been successfully described. A brief account of this prescription and some of the interesting results will be presented.

- 1, M. Hemalatha, A. Bhagwat, A. Shrivastava, S. Kailas and Y. K. Gambhir, Phys. Rev. C 70, 044320 (2004)
2. M. Hemalatha, Y. K. Gambhir, S. Kailas and W. Haider, Phys.Rev. 75, 037602 (2007)
3. M. Hemalatha, Y. K. Gambhir, W. Haider and S. Kailas, Phys. Rev. C 79, 057602 (2009)
4. W. Haider, M. Sharma, Y. K. Gambhir and S. Kailas, Phys. Rev. C81, 034601 (2010)